After a bad start, owing to the failure

be well illustrated + interesting.

Probably the best talk of the year, very profusely illustrated. The whole range of dining was dealt with, history, knowing + John Buxton personal experience.

After a poor start, when everyone finally arrived and got organised, the meet became very successful. The first 3 (named) members of the party attempted car polo, but were beaten by "Baptistry". The next day Grange Rigg was successfully bottomed, despite the icy water. There was snow on the ground in places, and hailstorms frequently accompanied us on the walk down from the Allotment. Every credit goes to Paul Greenwood, the least experienced of the party who survived this without a goon-suit, or a till comes with us regularly.
